Parking

If street parking is not available (Ambler is safe to walk in at night), you have 2 parking alternatives:

Denny's Electric

- There is a parking lot that belongs to Denny Electric, which they allow St. Johns to use for parking. It is located at the intersection of Race and Spring Garden Streets. To get to it:

Approaching from the east, after you cross, or turn off of Bethlehem Pike onto Butler Avenue, Spring Garden will be the third light. Turn right on Spring Garden. A block in, at the bottom of the hill on the right side is the entrance to the parking lot. St. Johns' is a block walk away. Turn right on Race Street after leaving the parking lot.

Ambler Municipal Lot

The entrance to Ambler Municipal Lot is on Lindenwold Avenue. Lindenwold and Race Streets border it. To get to it:

Approaching from the east, after you cross, or turn off of Bethlehem Pike onto Butler Avenue, Lindenwold Avenue will be your first light. Turn right on Lindenwold Avenue. Turn left into the parking lot almost immediately. Once you park, go to the back corner of the lot, near the stores. You will see some stairs. Walk up those stairs and you will be on Race Street. Turn left and you will see St. Johns a short block away.

If you are coming into Ambler on Butler Avenue from the west (from the direction of Conshohocken), turn left on Lindenwold Avenue, the fourth light after crossing the railroad tracks. Turn left into the parking lot almost immediately. Once you park, go to the back corner of the lot, near the stores. You will see some stairs. Walk up those stairs and you will be on Race Street. Turn left and you will see St. Johns a short block away.
